

Complete

THE

FRIEND.

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME XLV.

PHILADELPHIA:

PRINTED BY WILLIAM H. PILE,

1872.

35487

LIBRARY

MGFI

F915

Y.45

VOLUME

PRINTED BY WILLIAM A. HILL

1871

INDEX.

- Acceptable works. Isaac Penington on, 141.
Address to a class of young men about leaving school.
Extract from, 308.
Affliction. On enduring, 134.
On the blessing of, 239.
Africa. Discovery of an ancient ruined city in South, 346.
Agriculture. Statistics of the cost of a cheese factory,
62.
On the cultivation of rice, 76.
On tea-growing in the S. States, 108.
On grape culture in California, 125.
On milking in silence, 197.
Extensive fencing unnecessary, 220.
Albatross. Notes on the, 180.
Alcoholic liquors. On the physiological effects of, on the human system, 316. 321. 329.
Circular by eminent physicians discouraging
the inconsiderate prescription of, 383.
Successful discouragement of the use of, in Sweden, 412.
Alpaca wool. On the history of the manufacture of, in England, 324.
Alpine climbing and scenes. Description of, by Prof.
Tyndall, 149. 155. 227. 233. 343.
Amazon. Notes on the fishes and fauna of the, 83.
Anecdote of Indian gratitude, 5.
of a benevolent colored woman, 7.
a faithful colored servant, 7.
Mary Pryor, 90.
Mildred Ratcliff, 317.
Count Struensee, 95.
Luther, 99.
Nicholas Ferrar, 100.
a Prussian miller and the Prussian king, 107.
Napoleon Bonaparte, 142.
Dr. Johnson, 146.
Euclid, 156.
the Potter and Henry III., 158.
Dr. Benjamin Rush, 165.
Frederick the Great, 227.
Walter Scott, 228.
the unknown pilot, 340.
an Indian war-chief, 351.
Anecdote of the influence of a christian spirit, 183.
Aneurism of the arteries. Discovery of the present method of treating, 244.
Animals. Notes on tamed, 134.
Animals of the plains. Notes on the, 225. 235.
Anger. Advice in reference to, 151.
Ant. Notes on the carrying of, Brazil, 394.
Arabia. Account of travels in Central, 153. 166. 169.
178. 185. 195. 201. 211.
Arch Street Meeting-house. On the history of, 415.
Arctic birds. Account of a visit to a breeding place of, 221.
climate and animals. Notes on, 257. 267. 273.
Argentine Republic. On the dryness of the climate of,
95.
Arizona. Account of General Howard's late visit to the Indians of, 390.
Ascent of the Weisssthor, by Prof. Tyndall, 149. 155.
Jungfrau, by Prof. Tyndall, 227. 233.
Australia. Account of experiences of an Oxford graduate in, 241. 249. 259. 265. 275. 283. 291. 297.
307.
On the history of wool-growing in, 324.
Author. Account of the antiquary Stowe, a mendicant, 220.
Axe laid to the root of the corrupt tree." Extract entitled "An, 188.
Baltic sea. Observations on recent soundings made in the, 126.
Bamboo. On the uses and usefulness of the, 325.
Banana. The growth and value of the, 295.
Bank of England. Account of the history of, &c., 332.
Baobab tree of Australia. Account of the, 359.
Barclay's Apology. Convincement of G. W. R. by the instrumentality of, 164.
Convincement of a theological student by the
instrumentality of, 190.
Comments on the above, 191.
Barclay and his assailants. Extracts from an essay entitled, 222. 318.
Barclay, John. Extracts from the letters and papers of, and comments, 30. 36. 50. 68. 90. 99. 106. 122.
133. 138. 150. 173. 180. 194. 210. 220. 226. 254. 266.
299. 306. 314. 322. 338. 345. 365. 370. 389. 397. 402.
Barclay, Robert. Account given by himself of his con-vincement, 165.
Bat. Injuries done by the vampire, 342.
"Be at your posts." Extract entitled, 107.
Beaconite heresy. Testimony of Ann Jones at the time
of, 11.
Observations from England on the, 318.
"Bear ye one another's burdens," 6.
Beede, Cyrus. Epistle of, to Dover Quarterly Meeting of Friends, 77.
Beer. On the introduction of, into England, 315.
Benevolence. Anecdote of christian, 7.
Betel-nut. On the use of the, 411-
Bettle, Jane. Remarks on the character of, 285.
Bible Association of Friends in America. Circular of, 69.
Account of the discovery, &c., of the Sinaitic
manuscript of the, 137.
Bible and tract distributing Society. Letter addressed to, 327.
Birds. Observations on the reasoning of, 115.
On the ant-eating woodpecker, 135.
The albatross, 180.
Fishing with cormorants, 196.
A breeding place of the Arctic lumme, 221.
The domestic turkey originally from Mexico,
290.
On the habits and uses of the guacharo, 299.
The sagacity of the swallow, 414.
Birds'-nests. The collection and sale of edible, 253.
Account of pendent, 332.
Bison. Statistics of the rapid destruction of the, 383.
Blessed toil, 157.
Books, &c. Notices of Vick' Illustrated Catalogue and Floral Guide, 159.
The American Historical Record, &c., 271.
The Underground Railroad, &c., 271.
Report of the Sixth Conference of Teachers and Delegates from Friends' First-day Schools,
&c., 282.
The Maryville Monitor, 336. 382.
Another Phase of Modern Philosophy, by Eli K.
Price, 349.
Books. Statistics of the number of, on arithmetic, 18.
Boys. On occupying the leisure time of, with mechanical pursuits, 107.
Brazil. Account of the present Emperor of, 124. 129.
On the abolition of slavery in, 135.
Notes on the first impressions made by a walk in, 404.
On the struggle for life in the vegetation of, 412.
British Museum. Description of the library of, 89.
Brown, Isaac. Letter of, 357.
Comments on the above, 381.
Business. Remarks of John Barclay upon, 133. 220. 339.
A father's advice to his son upon, 134.
Remark of John Woolman upon, 371.
Advice of John Churchman upon the choice of
a, 411.
Butterfly. On the curious markings of the leaf, 236.
"Cabbage plants." Essay entitled, 410.
California. Account of a fruit orchard in, 28.
On grape culture at Los Angeles, 125.
Description of a mammoth grape vine in, 292.
Camel. On the character of the, 2.
Capper, Mary. Extracts from, 5. 266.
Cary, Phoebe. Brief sketch of the life of, 27.
Cats. Anecdotes of intelligence in, 10.
Cave. Account of Wyandotte, 74.
Census in Great Britain. On the method of taking the late, 11.
Character. On the gradual formation of a good, 391.
Cheese factory. Statistics of the cost of a, 62.
Chicago. Reminiscence of the early days of, 126.
Statement in reference to the burning of, and the relief of the sufferers, 162.
Chicago. Statement of disbursements through Friends for the relief of sufferers at, &c., 304.
On the identification of U. S. currency from the fire in, 189.
Children. On the danger of educating, to a love of excitement, 62.
Advice to, in regard to dress, 110.
Remarks on the government of, 125.
On the advantage to, of silent waiting in families, 214.
of pious parents. On the responsibility of, 214.
Advice contained in the book of discipline to,
286.
China. Notes on the scenery of the Yang-tse-kiang, 4.
Account of fishing with cormorants in, 196.
Christ. Cavillers at the divinity of, answered, 4.
The blood of, to be felt inwardly, 94.
The sufferings of, yet to be filled up in his members, 196.
Christianity. The stronghold of, the inward experience of its power, 132. 199.
Christian simplicity and plainness. Advice of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting upon, 325.
Christian spirit. Anecdote of the influence of, 183.
Church. On times of trial to the, 25.
A concern of Margaret Ellis against too much liberty in the, 174.
Observations of John Churchman on the members of the true, 412.
Churchman, John. Advice of, in regard to business, 411.
Clark, Asenath. Account of the last days of, 239.
Clark, Jane. Reminiscence of, 69.
Clarkson, Thomas. Extract from, on music, 3.
Clastic models. Essay upon, 82.
Appeal for the purchase of, for Westtown Boarding School, 95.
Climate. Effects of the destruction of forests upon, 116.
294.
Influence of, upon character, 140.
Coal-dust. Notice of the utilization of, 213.
Coal-mine. Remarkable destruction of a, 6.
Coffee. On the preparation of, in Arabia, 178.
On the commercial history of, 315.
Coins. Description of the history and characters of,
14. 21. 26. 33.
Colonial adventures and experiences in Australia, 241.
249. 259. 265. 275. 283. 291. 297. 307.
Controversy. On the defence and propagation of religious truth by, 172.
Conversation. On extravagant expressions in, 135.
Hints on elevating the character of, 269.
Copal. On the nature and sources of, 300.
Cope, Samuel. Notice of one of the last religious communications of, 157.
Incident related by, and comments, 295.
Coral. Fishing for red, 213.
Coral growths and reefs. Account of, 165. 171.
Cork. On the growth of, and mode of gathering, 356.
Cotton manufacture at Manchester, England. Notes on
the, 362.
Covetousness. On, 39.
Cresson, Sarah. Extracts from, 292. 356.
Crimes due to intoxicating drink. Proportion of, according to Chief Justice Hale, 167.
Crisp, Stephen. Epistle of, to Friends, 10.
Daily Preservation. Essay entitled, 295.
Death. Observations on the, which followed Adam's transgression, 342. 350.
Dewsbury, William. Epistle of, to Friends in Scotland, 100.
Diamond cutting and polishing in New York. Account
of, 364.
Dignity. Observations on true, 204.
Discernment. The gift of, bestowed upon our early
Friends, 231.
Remark in relation to the above, 271.
Discouragement. Remark of J. Barclay upon giving way to unprofitable, 339.
Dishonor of dishonesty. The, 342.
Divinity of Christ. Cavillers at, answered, 4.

Deaths.—Robert Alexander, 152; Emeline C. Armstrong, 192; Abigail Allman, 192; Mary M. Atwater, 216; Thimazine Ashbridge, 288; Susan Boss, 72; Postrema R. Burr, 120; Ambrose Boone, 152; John D. Balderston, 168; Orpah Boulton, 192; Rachel E. Ballinger, 192; Ezra Blackman, 224; Mary Ann Blackwood, 264; Anna S. Bailey, 288; Joseph Buzby, 352; Jesse Cope, 8; Jonathan W. Coffee, 32; Sarah W. Cooper, 64; William Cope, 88; Samuel Cope, 112; Mary Anna Carter, 192; Mary Chace, 232; Asenath Clark, 239, 240; Frances Clement, 279; Percival Collins, 328; Jeremiah Comfort, 360; Anna Leivick Crew, 376; Samuel Dixon, 48; Joseph Dickenson, 224; William Darlingto, 400; Camilla Embree, 8; Edith Edge, 96; Samuel R. Evans, 128; Catharine Evans, 160; Mary Emmons, 175; Jesse Embree, 175; Amos Evans, 192; John Edgerton, 328; Samuel French, 144; Catharine Flanner, 224; Elizabeth Flanagan, 224; William Y. Griffith, 72; Sarah Gifford, 175; George Gilbert, 280; Elizabeth E. Haines, 144; Alice Hibberd, 240; Margaret P. Hopkins, 328; Sarah Hollins' lead, 408; Mary Ann Jones, 352; Hannah Knowles, 200; Mary Kirkbride, 216; John M. Kaighn, 216; Mary Cordelia Kester, 224; Amy Larkin, 280; Lydia Lippincott, 312; Thomas E. Lee, 360; George Maris, 88; Jesse J. Maris, 168; Mary Milhous, 376; Martha Owen, 112; William B. Patten, 72; Alice C. Pickering, 248; Sarah Palmer, 296; Chase Purinton, 400; John Reeve, 112; Sallie W. Roberts, 168; Bathsheba Roberts, 200; Jemima G. Shotwell, 40; Elizabeth C. Smith, 160; Anne Sharpless, 168; Bennett Smedley, 208; George R. Smith, 208; Edward Snowden, 216; Daniel Stratton, 224; Ruth Satherthwaite, 232; Eliza Smith, 240; Walter Smith, 240; James Smith, 264; Susan Spencer, 264; Martha Smith, 384; Esther Thompson, 88; Letitia W. Thorp, 128; Catharine Townsend, 136; Jane Coe Taylor, 200; Asa Thomas, 200; Lucy M. Tatum, 272; Eliza Thurston, 312; Howard Thomas, 400; Francis H. Williams, 16; Ann A. Warder, 32; Thomas Williamson, 48; Carpenter Walter, 56, 72; Phebe B. Wood, 80; Zachariah Webster, 88; Sarah J. Welding, 144; Cidney E. Williams, 152; Letitia Wright, 192; Thomas C. Worthington, 224; Caspar Wistar, 232; William Walter, 280; William Wright, 328; Ann Wright, 384; Isaac Yarnall, 336.

Dog. Anecdote of sagacity in a, 142.

Dollar. Origin of the word, 227.

Dollinger, John Joseph Ignatius von. Sketch of, and the new protest against Rome, 377, 387, 393, 403, 410.

Dress. Observations of Thos. Clarkson upon, 17.

On regarding fashion in, 110.

Remarks of John Barclay upon a change in, 122, 195, 210, 226.

Comments on the above, 206.

Observations of Thomas Evans upon plainness of, 190, 230.

Plainness of, a Divine requiring, 194, 206.

On the evil consequences of a departure of Friends from plainness of, 222.

Memorandum of E. W. Maris upon, 255.

Ancient testimony from Joan Vokins upon, 262.

Concern of members of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting in relation to, 277.

Remark of a judge in court upon consistency in, 279.

Plainness of, among Friends not a badge of party, 319.

Comments on the end designed by humiliating requisitions in regard to, 322.

Ancient advices of Friends in London in regard to distinguishing plainness of, 363.

Drewry, Thomas. Protest of, against London Yearly Meeting, 51.

Comments on the above, 54.

Dudley, Mary. Convincement of, at the age of twenty-three, 222.

Extracts from, 286, 311.

Remarks of, upon gospel labor, 334.

Earthquake near Philadelphia. Observations upon an, 69, 78.

attending eruption of volcano of St. Vincent's, 251.

Easy routine of specious religious activity, 237.

Ecuador. Notes on natural history in, 138.

Edible birds-nests. Account of the collection of, 253.

Editorial.—Observations on beginning the 45th volume, 7; On the insidious attempts of the enemy of souls to bring in a spurious self-confident belief as a substitute for true faith, 14; On the work of the ministry, 23; The duty of the Christian as living in the world but not of the world, 31; On the demoralization of the community in official honesty, and on the requirements of true religion in regard to covetousness, 39; Notice of the letter of the Acting Com. of Indian Affairs on the protection of Indians from the intrusion of whites, 47; Comments on Thos. Drewry's protest and the present condition of the Society of Friends, 54, 111; Notice of the proceedings of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 1871, 63; On the liability to distrust the superintending care of Divine Providence, 70; On the destructive fires in Chicago and the Northwest, and an appeal on behalf of the sufferers, 78; Notice of the proceedings of Indiana, Iowa, and the Western Yearly Meetings, 86, 87; Remarks to contributors, 87; Appeal for the purchase of classic models for Westtown Boarding School, 95; The cold indifference of members of our Society to vital religion a source of sorrow to their brethren, and weakness to the church, 103; Notice of disciplinary proceedings in Hardshaw East Monthly Meeting, England, towards members holding deistical opinions, 111; Comments on the proceedings of some late "General Meetings," 118, 151, 159; Extracts from the minutes of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 1871, 126; On the abolition of slavery in Brazil, 135; Considerations on the danger of our public school system to the christianity of the country, 143; Correction of a misstatement, 152; Reflections on the commencement of a New Year, 158; Notice of Vick's Illustrated Catalogue and Floral Guide, 159; On true ministry under the gospel dispensation, 167; On the origin and authority of church discipline in the Society of Friends, 175; On the refusal of London Yearly Meeting to reprint Barclay's Apology, and the dishonest course of recent seceders at Manchester, England, 191; A reason for the objection of Friends to formal "prayer" meetings, "revival" meetings, &c., among them, 191; The origin and early history of the Society of Friends, and some of the causes of its present degeneracy, 207; On a proposed new militia law in Pennsylvania, and the unconstitutional character of certain of its provisions affecting Friends, 214; Request respecting verbal accuracy in quotations from Scripture, 214; Notice of some of the evil results that have followed a change of dress by Friends in Great Britain, and comments on the testimony to plainness, 222; Correction of typographical error, 223; On the difference between the true disciple of Christ, and the nominal professor, and on being willing to endure reproach for the cause of primitive Quakerism, 239; Notice of the last days of Asenath Clark, 239; On the past and present condition of the Society in England, 247; On the deportment and responsibility of the follower of Christ, 255; Considerations on the approach of the Yearly Meeting, 263; Encouragement offered to the faithful disciples of Christ, 271; Notice of the "American Historical Record," &c., 271; Notice of "The Underground Railroad," &c., 271; Remark in relation to a communication, 271; Account of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 286, 311; On the sufferings to be endured on behalf of Christ, and the consolations which reward them, 303; Statement of disbursements of money contributed by Friends for the relief of sufferers by fire in Chicago and the North-west, 304; Observations on the lessons to be derived from the late unusual withholding of rain, 319; Three serious questions to be answered individually, 327; Statistics of cruelties perpetrated upon Freedmen by the Ku-klux Klan, and comments, 334; Notice of the "Maryville Monitor," 336; Comments on modern scientific scepticism, 351; Notice of proceedings of London Yearly Meeting, 1872, 359; Notice of Dining-rooms, &c., established by the Women's Christian Association, for young women, 375; The prosperity of our Society proportional to the faithfulness of its members, 383; On the liability of falsely estimating our christian attainments, and on the process by which true laborers are prepared for the church, 391; On the work of salvation, 299; On the vitiating effects of works of fiction, and their employment in inculcating moral or religious sentiments, 408.

Edmundson, William. Peaceful confidence of, in the decline of life, 349.

Education. On the alleged value of music in, 3, in Sweden. Notes on, 412.

Effects of giving place to false reasoning, 244.

Ellis, Margaret. A concern of, against too much liberty in the church, 174.

Ellwood, Thomas. Remarks by, on giving flattering titles, &c., 70.

Emjen, Sarah. A testimony of, from England concerning Friends, 196.

Encouragement. A word of, 172.

England. On the mining of salt in, 276.

England, Account of the Bank of, 333.

Eruption of volcano of St. Vincent's, 1812. Account of, 251.

Epistle of Mildred Ratcliff to Friends of Core Sound, 42.

Cyrus Beede to Dover Quarterly Meeting of Friends, 77.

William Dewsbury to Friends in Scotland, 100.

Error. On acknowledging, 146.

Errors in Religion. Essay entitled, 130.

Evans, Jonathan. Observations of Ann Jones concerning, 198.

Comments on the character of, 259.

Communication of Mildred Ratcliff to, 317, 1

Evans, Thomas. Remarks of, upon plainness in dress and language, 190, 230.

On the christian testimonies peculiar to Friends, 221.

On worldly compliance, 230.

On the easy routine of specious religious activity, 237.

Evans, William. Letter of, respecting Westtown B. School, 35.

Extract from, on the duties of ministers and elders, 94.

Extract from, on thankfulness for daily preservations, 356.

Extracts from the Journal of, 111, 115, 134, 247, 286.

Faith. Questions and answers concerning, 73.

The distinction between a false and a true, 188.

Comments on the above, 191.

Observations on the efficacy of true, 365.

Trials to be expected by those who live by, 374.

Faithfulness. A call to, 189.

in little things. Remarks of John Barclay on, 210.

Famine in Persia. Account of the, 204.

Father. Advice of a, to his son, 134.

Families. On the advantage of silent waiting upon God in, 214.

Fellowship of suffering. Remarks of R. Shackleton, on, 244.

Fencing. The extensive use of, unnecessary, 220.

Fer-de-lance of the West Indies. On the, 190.

Fever-tree. Notice of the Tasmanian, 212.

Fires in Chicago and the North-west. On the destruction by, 78.

Report on the relief of the sufferers by, 162, 304.

Fish. Notes on the blind, 74.

Account of coral-eating, 165.

Notes on the drum, 268.

Fishes of the Amazon. Notes on the, 83.

Fishing with cormorants in China. On, 196.

Fishery. Notes on the herring, 277.

Flies. Antipathy of, to the magnet, 20.

Florence and Galileo. Comments on, 122.

Food for thinkers and workers. Remarks on, 62.

Wheat the completest, 123.

On the use of snails as, 295.

On the history of potatoes, rice, sugar, &c., as, 306.

On the history of tea and coffee as, 315.

Forest of Trinidad. Description of the primeval, 205.

Forest. Effect of the voices of a South American, upon the mind, 334, 404.

Forests. Effect of the destruction of, upon the rain-fall, 116, 294.

of India. Account of, 413.

Forgiveness of trespasses. Advice upon, 205.

Forgiveness. Anecdote in relation to, 156.

Forks. On the introduction of, into England, 348.

Fothergill, John. Observations of, upon entering into the ministry, and comments, 333.

Fothergill, John, the physician. Letter of, to the Friends named as a Y. M. Committee in 1776, 354.

Fothergill, Samuel. Extracts from, 294, 348, 355.

Foundation. On building on the sure, 116.

A sure, 146.

Fox, George. On the home and character of, 113.

Advice of, in regard to judging, 212.

Advice to Friends, 276.

Exhortation of, 375.

Fox, George the younger. Brief account of, 394.

Fox, Maria. On maintaining the testimony to the plain language, 410.

On the acceptableness of submission to the Divine will, 412.

France. On the production of beet root sugar in, 184.

Frederick the Great. Habits of, in reading, 227.

Freedmen. Statements in reference to schools for, in Tennessee, 12, 109, 141.

Report of the Women's Aid Association for the relief of, 197.

- reedmen, Statistics of cruelties perpetrated by the Ku-Klux Klan upon, and comments, 334.
- Notice of the "Maryville Monitor," 332.
- riends. Religious communications addressed to, 25. 44. 46. 61. 66. 81. 84. 92. 94. 105. 123. 130. 134. 145. 146. 189. 228. 253. 262. 302.
- On the danger to the Society of, by the obscuring of the fundamental doctrine of the operation of the Holy Spirit in the heart, 44. 134.
- Advice to, in the present critical period of the Society of, 262.
- On the present condition of the Society of, 54. 172. 189. 207. 222. 239. 247. 258. 318.
- The doctrines and testimonies of, a trust to be transmitted to future generations. Remarks of John Woolman on, 83.
- Objections of, to the use of compliments and the language of the world, 97.
- The cold indifference of members among, a source of lifelessness to the church, 103.
- The cause of the cloud overspreading the Society of, 108.
- Remonstrance of, in 1725, in reference to hat honor, 110.
- Remarks of a lately deceased minister on the condition of the Society of, 115.
- Freedom from sin in this life a doctrine of the early, 134.
- Objections to First-day schools among, 141. 151. 191. 282.
- Advice of Wm. Penn upon reading the lives of ancient faithful, 142.
- On the condition of the Society of, in Great Britain, 318.
- "General Meetings." Remarks on some late, 118. 151. 157. 159.
- On the origin and authority of church discipline in the Society of, 175.
- On the title to existence of, as a distinct body of professors, 177. 318.
- Observations of Thomas Evans on the testimony of, to plainness of dress and language, 190.
- Plainness of dress of, not a badge of party. Remarks of Wm. Penn on, 319.
- A reason for the objection of, to formal prayer meetings, "revival" meetings, &c., among them, 191.
- A testimony from England, in 1845, concerning, 196.
- Report of a General meeting among, in N. C., and comments, 197.
- or Methodists. Remarks from England entitled, 207.
- Advice of George Fox to, on judging, 212.
- Remarks of Thomas Evans on the christian testimonies peculiar to, 221.
- Evil results that have followed a change of dress of, in Great Britain, 222.
- Remarks of Henry Hull in 1826, on the appearances of schism among, 244.
- Warning and exhortation to, by George Fox, 276.
- Remarks of M. Ratcliff upon the origin and the continuance of the Society of, and comments, 301.
- Remarks of Maria Fox on the importance of maintaining the testimony of, to the plain language, 410.
- "From death to life." Essay entitled, 81.
- Fruit orchard in California. Account of a large, 28.
- "Fruitful in every good work." Extract entitled, 381.
- Funeral pulpit flattery. Extract upon, and comments, 269.
- Fungus on buildings occupied by liquor dealers. Note on, 381.
- Galileo. On the history and character of, 122.
- Gamblers. Anecdote of two, 27.
- Geology. Observations on paying stones, 1. of the western plains. Notes on the, 217. On copal as a fossil gum-resin, 300. Considerations upon T. Story's view of relative ages of the earth's strata, 323. 329. 337.
- "Getting off the true foundation." Essay entitled, 141. Correction of a statement in the above, 151.
- Gifts refused. Anecdote of, 324.
- Gloves. Notes on the history of, in England, 354.
- Goldsmith, Oliver. Testimony of, against novels, 100.
- Grape culture in California. On, 125. vine in California. Description of a mammoth, 292.
- Grave-stones. Remarks on, 286.
- Great Britain. Account of the method of taking the late census in, 11.
- Greek Church. Account of late persecutions by the, in Russia, 11.
- Greenland. On the early colonies of the Northmen in, 209. 219.
- East. On the climate and character of, 257. 267. 273.
- Griffin, Mary. A short biography of, 156. 161.
- Testimony of Nine Partners Monthly Meeting concerning, 161.
- Griffith, John. Observations of, on the ministry, 323.
- Grocers' guild of London. Brief sketch of, 339.
- Grover, William. Remarks on the character of, and extracts from, 62. 100.
- Grubb, S. [L.] Extracts from, 52. 244. 326.
- Guacharo bird. Notes on the habits of and on hunting the, 299.
- Guion, J. M. Extracts from, on the silent operation of the Holy Spirit, 403. 404. Remarks of, on the happiness of true resignation, 404.
- Gun cotton. On the properties and uses of, 95.
- Gutta percha. On the discovery and source of, 244.
- Hat honor. Incident in the early history of Penna. respecting, 110.
- Health. A plea for sleep in the morning, 20. On food for thinkers and workers, 62. On the limit of temperature at which labor can be performed, 94. The importance of cleanliness of the skin to, 131. On the effects of alcoholic drinks upon the, 316. 321. 329. On the treatment and prevention of sunstroke, 370. The inconsiderate prescription of alcoholic liquors discouraged by eminent physicians, 383.
- Herring fishing of Europe. Notes on the, 277.
- Hervey, James. A meditation of, 238.
- Hibberd, Lydia. Account of the last illness of, 386.
- High Tartary, Yarkand and Kashghar. Account of recent travels in, 369. 379. 385. 396. 405. 409.
- Hindoo in the West Indies. On the importation of, 199.
- History illustrated by numismatics, 14. 21. 26. 33.
- Holy Scriptures. Remarks of Thos. Ellwood upon reading the, 47. Extract from The Episcopalian on the right understanding of the, 117. A testimony concerning the, from a former theological student, 164. Remarks of Sir William Jones on the, 180. Extract from Wm. Penn on the literal knowledge of the, 374. can be truly understood only through the openings of Divine Light. Remarks of John Barclay on, 390.
- Honesty of the Turks. Anecdote of, 5.
- Honor and honesty. Comments on their application to national questions, 342.
- Horses. Sir Astley Cooper's dealings with, 359.
- Hot springs of New Zealand. Account of, 9. 346. 388.
- Hull, Henry. Testimony of, concerning his wife, 84. Remarks of, on the effects of giving place to false reasoning, 244.
- Humility can only be fully produced by the gospel of Christ, 5.
- Humility. Remarks of John Barclay upon, 345.
- Ice. Account of a machine for making, 407.
- In the Spirit there is but one voice, 166.
- Indian gratitude. Anecdote of, 5. Anecdote of gratitude shown to an, 21. Anecdote of the dedication of an, to the Great Spirit, 351.
- Indians. Appeal of Friends to the President of the U. S. on behalf of two Kiowa, 7. Letters of J. Richards contradicting false reports of outrages by, 21. Extracts from the report of the Associated Ex. Com. of Friends in relation to the, 37. 46. 52. 60. Letter of the Acting Commissioner on protecting the, from the intrusion of whites, 47. Appeal on behalf of a school and children among the Quapaw, 375. Account of Gen. Howard's late visit and labors among the Arizona, 390.
- Infidel. Confession of Count Struensee, a professed, 95.
- Infidelity. Comments on modern scientific, 351.
- Influence. On the certainty of individual, 214. On the unconscious power of individual, 382.
- Insects. On the habits of spiders, 28. Notes on Cave, 74. On Malayan leaf butterflies, 236.
- Insects, Notes on the carrying ant of Brazil, 394. On the locust borers, 406. On cabbage eating, 410.
- Institute for colored youth. Report of the Board of Managers of the, 101.
- Intoxicating drink. Remarks of Chief Justice Hale on the proportion of crimes due to, 167. On the physiological effects of, upon the body, 316. 321. 329.
- Inwardness. Essay entitled, 145.
- Iron paper. Account of the manufacture of, 20.
- Jackson, William. Observations on the religious character of, 234.
- Japan. Account of the manufacture of paper in, 148.
- Java. On the collection of edible birds-nests in, 253.
- Jenner, Dr. Biographical notice of, 212.
- Jerusalem. Ancient relic recently discovered near, 167.
- Jew inward." Essay entitled, "The, 66.
- Jones, Ann. Brief notice of, and a remarkable testimony by, 11.
- Jones, Rebecca. Extracts from, 183. 214.
- Judging. Advice in regard to, 212. 236.
- Justification. Questions and answers concerning, 73. not to be known but by the new understanding, 227.
- Keith, George. Remarks on the career of, 108.
- Kidnapping in the South Seas. Account of, 6.
- Kirk, Elizabeth, a minister deceased. Brief account of, 181.
- Knives. On the manufacture of spring, 70.
- Language. Observations of Thomas Evans upon the use of the plain, 190. Remarks of Maria Fox on the importance of maintaining the testimony to the plain, 412.
- Languages. Remarkable ability of Mezzofanti in learning, 12.
- Late hours. Advice to parents on, 213.
- "Let him alone." Extract entitled, 326.
- Letter from a Friend upon music. Extract from, 3.
- Letters of Jona. Richards upon Indian affairs, 21.
- Letters of Thos. Story and Jas. Logan, with comments, 245. 250. 260. 267. 274. 281. 298. 305.
- Letters of John Barclay, with comments, 150. 180. 226. 254. 266. 290. 306. 339. 389. 397. 402.
- Letter of William Evans, 35. 331.
- John J. White, 38.
- Rebecca Preston, 51. 52. 69. 75.
- Rebecca Hopkins, 58.
- William Grover, 62.
- Sarah [Proctor] Wilson, 70. 75. 76.
- Hannah Shinn, 75. 186.
- Ezra Gillingham, 154.
- Elizabeth Gillingham, 154. 163. 170.
- B. W. Ladd, 154. 310. 378.
- Mary Griffin, 161.
- Stephen Grellet, 163.
- Rebecca Grellet, 163.
- Deborah Cope, 164.
- Sarah Morris, 170. 171. 198. 229.
- Mildred Ratcliff, 170. 179. 202. 218. 252. 258. 270. 310.
- Jane Bettle, 179. 187. 285.
- Jacob Hampton, 186.
- H. Regina Shober, 186.
- Ann Jones, 198. 242.
- Newberry Smith, Jr., 202.
- Beulah Sansom, 218. 229.
- Sarah Hillman, 242. 279. 285. 292. 341. 362.
- James Logan, 250. 261. 274. 281. 289. 298.
- Thomas Story, 250. 260. 261. 267. 305. 313.
- Jonathan Evans, 251. 270. 278. 292. 293. 317.
- Sarah Logan, Jr., (afterwards Norris), 261.
- Joan Vokins, 262.
- John Hall, 317.
- Jane M. Plummer, 331. 347. 357.
- Joseph Edgerton, 331. 341. 356. 362. 372. 378.
- Elizabeth Pitfield, 347.
- John Wood, 372.
- Isaac Brown, 357.
- Comments on the above, 381.
- Library of the British Museum. Description of the, 89.
- Life of the "Plains." Notes on the, 217. 225. 235.
- Life. Comments on theories respecting the origin of, 349. 357. 361. 372.
- Little things in religion. On, 214.
- Lizard. Notes on the, 78.
- Lofoden Islands. Notes of a visit to the, 193. 203.
- Logan James. Correspondence between Thomas Story and, with notes, 245. 250. 260. 267. 274. 281. 289. 298. 305. 313. 322. 329. 337.

- Comments upon a point alluded to in the above and reply, 342. 350.
- Luther. The industry of, as shown by the number of his books, 146.
- Luther's contempt of riches. Anecdotes of, 99.
- Marriages.—Amos Battey to Mary Carson, 48; John W. Cadbury to Rebecca Warner, 64; Levi S. Thomas to Sidney P. Walter, 64; Robert P. Lovett to Sarah A. Satterthwaite, 128; Wistar Newbold to Josephine Cooper, 144; Isaac H. Shearman to Susan W. Hilles, 152; Thomas Fawcett to Margaret Ann McGrew, 160; Lindley Heald to Nancy L. Fritchman, 160; William Henry Wilkins to Esther A. Engle, 175; Edward Stratton to Mary H. Raley, 224; Thomas Dewees to Martha W. Hall, 240; Franklin Rockwell to Maria A. Knowles, 248; Pearson Thomas to Sarah Walker, 256; Joseph K. Evans to Elizabeth Wright, 256; Samuel Worthington to Sarah Catharine Reeve, 272; Daniel DeCout to Ruthanna L. Allen, 272; Charles H. Clendenon to Ruth S. Battey, 312. 344; Howard Comfort to Susan F. Wistar, 320; Edward S. Yarnall to Sidney S. Garrett, 336; Israel H. Johnson to Mary Marshall, 352; Edward Webster to Emma England, 368.
- Madagascar. Speech of the Queen of, at the opening of a place of worship, 228.
- Magellan. Note on the discovery of the Strait of, 238.
- Mammoth Cave. Adventure in the, 35.
- Manchester, Eng. Notes on the cotton manufacture in, 362.
- Manufacturers. Accounts of secrets of, stolen, 348.
- Maris, Eleanor W. Observations of, upon a plain dress, 255.
- Marriage. Advice in reference to, 84.
- Marshall, Charles. Extract from, on the working of the enemy of souls, 95.
- *Materialism. Remarks on the fallacies of the doctrine of, 349. 357. 361. 372.
- Meeting houses. Upon extravagance in the erection of, 188.
- Memorial of Mary Griffin, 161.
- Memoirs of Mildred Ratcliff, (continued from vol. xliv.) 13. 19. 29. 34. 42. 51. 58. 69. 75. 85. 101. 114. 121. 139. 147. 154. 163. 170. 179. 186. 198. 202. 218. 229. 234. 242. 251. 258. 270. 278. 285. 292. 301. 310. 317. 331. 341. 347. 356. 362. 372. 378.
- Mezzofanti. The wonderful acquisition of languages by, 12.
- Milking in silence. On, 197.
- Mimetic Analogy. Examples of, in animals on the "Plains," 235.
- Example of, in Malayan butterflies, 236.
- Mine. A visit to the Wieliczka salt, 173.
- Mines. On the temperature at which labor can be performed in, 94.
- Ministry. On the work of the, 23.
- On the duties of elders in relation to the, 94.
- True religion leads out of all disposition for outward display in the work of the, 123.
- On two kinds of, 126.
- The views of Friends in relation to the, 167.
- The danger in relation to the, at the present day, 189.
- On the influence of upon the people, 219.
- Popular applause not a criterion of the, 323.
- Observations of John Fothergill upon the trials and doubts incident upon entering upon the, and comments, 333.
- Monkey. Notes on the S. American spider, 260.
- Monkeys in India. Observations on, in their native haunts, 131.
- Mont Cenis tunnel. Account of the completion of, 102.
- Montana. Description of the scenery, &c., in the Basin of the Yellowstone in, 366. 373. 380. 388. 397. 401.
- Moral truth. The unassisted intellect incapable of perceiving, 290.
- "More sure word of prophecy." Observations on the text, 358.
- Mother. On the duty of a, 247.
- Music. Observations upon, 3.
- Mussels. On the early rearing of, for food, 166.
- Mutual Subjection. Essay entitled, 76.
- "My Locust trees," Essay entitled, 406.
- Natural History. The camel, 2; The lizard, 78; The fauna of the Amazon, 83; The reasoning of birds, 115; The swallow, 115; Snakes at their meals, 118; Monkeys in India, 131; Notes on tamed animals, 134; On the animals of a tropical forest, 139; Corals and coral eating fish, 165; The pearl oyster, 181; On the fer-de-lance and its natural enemy, 190; On fishing with cormorants, 196; The red coral, 213; Cocoon eating crab, 222; The bison, 225; The antelope, 225; The jack rabbit, 226; The prairie dog, 235; The coyote, 235; Prairie rattlesnake, 235; Examples of "limnetic analogy," 235. 236; The spider monkey, 260; The drum fish, 268; Sea-cucumbers, 326; The vampire bat, 342.
- Needles. Statistics of the manufacture and sale of, 94.
- New nature, and new understanding. The, 227.
- Newton, John. Habitual reference of, to Providential guidance, 106.
- Remark of, on the dress and behaviour of women, 142.
- New Zealand. Description of hot springs in, 9. 346.
- Northmen. On the early colonies of the, in Greenland, 209. 219.
- Novels. Testimony of Oliver Goldsmith and others against, 100.
- Novel reading. On the injurious tendency of, 134. 408.
- Novgorod. Notice of the annual fair of, 174.
- Obeah or fetish worship in the West Indies, 353.
- Obedient followers of the crucified Immanuel. Extract entitled, 244.
- Oberlin. Anecdote of, in deep affliction, 47.
- "Our aims in life." Essay entitled, 308.
- Oyster packing in Baltimore. Account of, 142.
- Pacific Mills, Mass. Statistics of the, 151.
- Palisay, Bernard de. Anecdote of, 158.
- Paper. Notes on the manufacture of, in Japan, 148.
- Paper boxes. Account of the manufacture of, 132.
- Parents. Advice to, on late hours, 213.
- Patience among the virtues, like iron among metals, 404.
- Peach. On the history of the, 4.
- Pearl oyster. Notes on pearls and the, 181.
- Peasant's life in Tuscany. The, 18. 43. 57. 65.
- Pedro II. of Brazil. Account of the life of, 124. 129.
- Penington, Isaac. Extracts from, 39. 66. 67. 84. 141. 166. 227.
- On the faith which is of man, and the faith which is of God, 188.
- Comments on the above, 191.
- Penn, William. Extracts from, 86. 294. 315. 374.
- Advice of, on reading the Holy Scriptures and the writings of faithful Friends, 142.
- Exhortation of, to professors of the Truth to diligence in the work of the Lord, 238.
- Warning by, to those whose hearts are on their earthly possessions, 244.
- Remarks of, on plainness of dress, 319.
- Persia. Account of the famine in, 204.
- Philippine Islands. Some proverbs current in the, 100.
- Philosophy. Another phase of modern, 349. 357. 361. 372.
- Pike, Joseph. Remarks of, on the government of children, 125.
- Pitfield, Elizabeth. Reminiscence of, 69.
- Plague in London. Brief account of the, 394.
- Plants. Notice of "soap" plants, 92; The potato, 106; The Tasmanian "Fever tree," 212; The gutta percha tree, 244; On the bark of trees, 262; A mammoth grape vine, 292; Gigantic tropical trees, 293; The banana, 295; The Moriche palm, 314; The bamboo, 325; The cork oak, 336; The baobab tree, 359; Old linden trees, 382; The betel nut, 411; The sipa mator, 412.
- Plains, The. Notes on the animals, &c., of the great, 217. 225. 235.
- Plates. On the history of the use of, and improvements in, 348.
- Poetry.—Original.—In Memoriam M. A. Carter, 228; The wail of the Guardian Angel, 332; "By whom shall Jacob arise," 348.
- Selected.—Arbutus, 316; The Bright Side, 28; The Brighter Day, 36; Bring our Sheaves with us, 52; The Best in Store, 164; Be Patient, 180; The Blessing of to-day, 260; Christ's Kingdom, 68; Comfort for Sickness, 84; Chicago, 132; Contentment and Humility, 199; Eternity, 92; Good in Ill, 227; Green things growing, 300; The Humble Heart, 180; Here and Now, 260; In the firelight, 124; In the night season, 236; "In due season," 276; In the evening, 284; Keeping a vigil, 124; "Lovest thou me," 4; The Lame Boy, 20; Lines, 28; Lessons of the Flowers, 36; Little Moments, 60; The Lost Star, 148; Lines addressed to a friend on his 62d Birthday, 172; Look at home, 244; The Lilies of the field, 269; The Lowly Life, 365; Mercies, 20; My Birthday, 108; My Home, 252; The Man of Macedonia, 292; Niagara, 68; No time to pray, 316; Our Master, 4; The Old Chimney Place, 44; Oh make our house thy home, 172; Out of the darkness, 269; Our Pattern, 396; The Quaker Meeting, 1688, 340; Religion, 12; Rain after drought, 356; The Sparrow, 12; Sea weed, 92; Self-surrender, 100; Soon, 116; Submission, 116; Short Words, 156; Spring, 212; Summer Morning, 221; Still will we trust, 244; The single head of wheat, 387; Trust, 52; Trust in the Lord, 60; Trust, 84; Thy will be done, 44; Thoughts on Silent Meetings, 236; Try to be good, 300; Sleep, 309; Trust, 356; The Teachers' dream, 380; Vineyard laborers, 412; Wait and See, 100; When I Remember, 132; Watch and pray, 140; A Winter Lily, 156; Winter, 221; Words, 276; The web of life, 372.
- Poor. On the pleasure of seeking and relieving the, 149.
- Post-office. Statistics of the operations of the British, 111.
- Potatoes. Observations on the History and value of, 106. 306.
- Practical experimental religion. On, 92.
- Prayer. Remarks of Thos. Ellwood upon, 47.
- Weighty observations on, 50. 338.
- Experience of John Barclay in regard to formal, and comments, 345.
- Preaching in a fog. Anecdote entitled, 413.
- Pride. Remarks of Diogenes upon, 100.
- On spiritual, 254.
- Procrastination. Illustration of, 167.
- Prodigal turned miser. Anecdote entitled, 116.
- Price, Philip and Rachel. Notice of, as Superintendents at Westtown Boarding School, 246.
- Providential interference, 219.
- preservations experienced in our daily lives. Remarks on, 295.
- preservation often experienced by heeding impressions made on the mind, 374.
- Pryor, Mary. Account of the shipwreck of, 90.
- Additional particulars concerning, 157.
- Railroads. Incident showing the development of, in 40 years, 284.
- Ratcliff, Mildred. Memoirs of (continued from vol. xlv.) 13. 19. 29. 34. 42. 51. 58. 69. 75. 85. 101. 114. 121. 139. 147. 154. 163. 170. 179. 186. 198. 202. 218. 229. 234. 242. 251. 258. 270. 278. 285. 292. 301. 310. 317. 331. 341. 347. 356. 362. 372. 378.
- Warning given by, in Philadelphia Y. Meeting, 1840, 284.
- Remarks on a sententious expression of, 286.
- Rejoicing in the Truth. Essay entitled, 367.
- Religion. Head knowledge must yield to that which leadeth to humility in, 61.
- The experience of, a progress from death to life, 81.
- On practical experimental, 92.
- On little things in, 214.
- Remarks of Thomas Evans on specious activity in, 237.
- On the danger of self-activity and spiritual pride in, 254.
- Remarks on a prevalent delusive system in, 286.
- The hindrance to the work of, in the world, by the enlisting therein of the powers of the unregenerate man, 381.
- Extract from J. M. Guion, on the silent work of, in the heart, 403.
- Report of the Associated Ex. Com. of Friends on Indian affairs, 37. 46. 52. 60.
- of the Board of Managers of the Institute for Colored Youth, 101.
- in reference to the relief of the Chicago and Northwest sufferers, 162. 304.
- of the Women's Aid Association for the relief of the Freedmen, 197.
- of the Board of Managers of the Tract Association, 355.
- Retirement. On the need for deep inward, 294.
- Reuter and his telegrams. Account of, 338.
- Rice. On the cultivation and preparation of, 76.
- On the history of, as food, 306.
- Rome. Account of the new protest among Catholics against, 377. 387. 393. 403. 410.
- Russia. Account of late persecutions on account of religion in, 11.
- Notice of the fair at Novgorod, 174.
- Salt. On the manufacture of, at Turk's Island, 164.
- A visit to the mine of, in Poland, 173.
- On the mining of, in Cheshire, England, 276.
- Saying "good things." Remarks on, 5.
- Scattergood, Thomas. Extract from, 11.
- School. Experience of a teacher in conducting a, 296.
- Schools. Objections to First-day, among Friends, 141. 151. 191. 282.
- Considerations on the danger of our system of public, to the christianity of the country, 143.

- chools, Friends' Select. Notice concerning, 174.
 eott, Job. Extracts from, 196, 214, 220.
 ea. On the existence of silver in the, 12.
 Observations on recent soundings in the Baltic,
 126.
 On the temperature of the, 187.
 On the causes and phenomena of the tides of the, 237, 243.
 ea-cucumbers. On the collection and sale of, 326.
 eal fishing on the coast of Newfoundland, 98.
 ilk. Notes on the production of, in Tuscany, 65.
 imoom. A traveller's experience of a, 153.
 inner abused, the Saviour exalted. The, 61.
 hackleton, Richard. Extracts from, 244, 253, 294, 330.
 helter for colored orphans, An appeal on behalf of, 411.
 heppard, Catharine. Remarks of S. Hillman on the death and character of, 341.
 hipwreck of Ma y Pryor. Account of the, 90, 157.
 hipton, A. Extract from on false zeal, 175.
 Experience of, in so-called "christian work," 375.
 hoies. On the history of, 354.
 Silent waiting on the Lord, 220.
 Slavery. Account of kidnapping in the South Seas, 6.
 Sleep. The loss of, by fashionable companies an injury to the community, 327.
 Sleep in the morning. A plea for, 20.
 Small-pox. On the efficacy of vaccination in preventing, 117.
 Extract from R. Jones suggested by the present prevalence of, 183.
 On the discovery of vaccination as a preventive
 of, 212.
 Snails. On the use of, as food, 295.
 Snakes at their meals. Observations on, 118.
 On the fer-de-lance and its enemy, 190.
 Soap-plants. Notice of various, 92.
 "Speaking the same language." Essay entitled, 228.
 Spending half an hour alone. Anecdote entitled, 94.
 Spiders. Observations on the habits of, 28.
 Spirit. The doctrine of the, 44.
 Spirit quickens." Extract entitled, "The, 43.
 Springs. Account of the hot, in the basin of the Yellowstone, 366, 373, 380, 397, 401.
 Statistics of the grape sugar industry in Germany, 110.
 of the British Post-office, 111.
 of the destruction produced by alcohol in the United States, 330.
 Steam-engine. Description of a miniature, 231.
 Stockings. Notes on the introduction of, into general use, 355.
 Stones. On the natural history of paving, 1.
 Story, Christopher. Remarks of, on the unspeakable gift, 367.
 Story, Thomas. Correspondence between James Logan and, with notes, 245, 250, 260, 267, 274, 281, 289, 293, 305, 313, 322, 329, 337.
 Comments upon a point alluded to in the above and reply, 342, 350.
 Submission to the Divine will. The acceptableness of, 412.
 Substitution in religion. Remarks on the doctrine of,
 130.
 Sugar. On the manufacture in Germany of grape, 110.
 On the production in France of beet-root, 184.
 On the introduction of, to western Europe, 306.
 Summer in the heart. On, 149.
 Summary of Events, 7, 15, 23, 31, 39, 48, 56, 63, 71, 79,
 87, 95, 104, 111, 120, 128, 136, 143, 160, 168, 175,
 184, 191, 200, 203, 216, 224, 232, 240, 248, 256, 264,
 272, 279, 287, 296, 304, 312, 320, 328, 336, 344, 352,
 360, 368, 376, 384, 392, 400, 408, 416.
 Sun. Account of a halo of the, 30.
 The relative dimensions of the planets and the,
 46.
 Sunstroke. Observations on the treatment and prevention of, 370.
 Swallow, on the sagacity of the, 414.
 Swathmore. Description of, and comments, 113.
 Sweden. Notes on education, and the use of intoxicating drinks in, 411.
 Switzerland. Strict moral life in one of the districts of,
 325.
 Tale-bearing. On, 84.
 Taylor, Jane. Extract from, 2.
 Tea. On the introduction into and present consumption of, in Great Britain, 315.
 Tea-growing in the S. States. Account of the success
 of, 108.
 Telegrams. Account of Reuter and his, 338.
 Telegraph and the storm. The, 41, 49, 59, 67, 77.
 Theatrical amusements. Remark of Dr. Rush upon, 165.
 Thorp, John. Extract from, on the end of the righteous, 125.
 Remarks of, on causes for mourning and rejoicing, 346.
 "Those who leave our Society because of the cross."
 Extract entitled, 108.
 Tibet. Account of recent travels in, 369, 379, 385.
 Tides. On the causes and phenomena of the, 237, 243.
 Toad. Account of a domesticated, 53.
 Tobacco. The evils resulting from, 44.
 On the poison of, 108.
 Remarks and experience of the late Gov. Briggs on the injurious effects of, 344.
 Tracts. Encouragement to distribute, 317.
 Trees. On curious uses of the barks of, 262, 307.
 Account of gigantic tropical, 293.
 as the habitations of Indians on the Orinoco, 314.
 Account of linden, of great age, 382.
 Trinidad. Description of the primeval forests in, 205.
 Tunnel. Account of the completion of the Mont Cenis, 102.
 Notice of an ancient, through the Alps, 156.
 Turkey. The domestic, originally from Mexico, 290.
 Turk's Island. On the manufacture of salt at, 164.
 Tuscany. The peasant's life in, 18, 43, 57, 65.
 Two Ways." Essay entitled, "The, 105.
 Comments on the above, 126.
 Utilization of coal-dust. On the, 213.
 Umbrellas. On the history of, 182.
 United States. Statistics of the destruction produced by alcohol in the, 330.
 Unity. The love of, not to hush the voice of Truth,
 246, 255.
 Unknown pilot." Anecdote entitled, "The, 340.
 Upham, Thomas C. Brief account of, 398.
 Vaccination. On the efficacy of, in preventing small-pox, 117.
 Notice of the discovery of, 212.
 Vampire bat. Injuries done by the, 342.
 Vesuvius. Observations upon the recent eruption of, 367.
 Vice. On screening, 242.
 Visit of the Committee of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 1872. Comments on, 343.
 Visit of the Committee of London Yearly Meeting,
 1776. Comments on, 354.
 Vital religion a quiet inward spiritual experience, 123.
 Vokins, Joan. Advice of, to her children on dress, 262.
 Extract from, on her early conviction, 367.
 Volcano of St. Vincent's. Phenomena attending eruption of in 1812, 251.
 Vesuvius. Observations on the recent eruption
 of, 367.
 War. Notice of a proposed militia law in Penna., 214.
 Water. The evidences of design in the phenomena of freezing, 187.
 Watson, Sam'el. Brief testimony concerning, 204.
 Wakin's Glen. Notes on a journey to, 406.
 Ways of Zion moved." Essay entitled, "The, 92.
 Wealth. On misdirected, 183.
 Weather. On the method of ascertaining the "probabilities" of the, 41, 49, 59, 67, 77.
 Webster's Spelling Book. The large sale of, in the United States, 355.
 West Indies. On the fer-de-lance of, 190.
 On the importation of Hindoos into the, 199.
 On obeah or fetish worship in the, 353.
 Westtown Boarding School. Letter of Wm. Evans concerning, 85.
 Observations on the origin and present condition
 of, 228.
 Remarks on the value of, to the Society of Friends, 246.
 On the formation of a fund to increase the salaries of teachers at, 246.
 "What Matter?" to the earthly part? Observations entitled, 286.
 Wheat the completest food, 123.
 Wheeler, Daniel. Extracts from, 116, 284.
 "Whose faith follow?" Essay entitled, 253.
 "Why fear a revival?" Communication entitled, 60.
 "Why reject Barclay's Apology?" Extract entitled, 190.
 Comments on the above, 191.
 Wilbur, John. Correction of a misstatement in reference to the last days of, 110.
 Winter. On the beauty of, 199.
 Wistar, Mary. Concern of, in reference to the young,
 151.
 Wit. Advice in regard to, 5.
 "Without me ye can do nothing." Illustration of, 375.
 Wool-growing in Australia. On the history of, 324.
 Woolman, John. Extracts from, 20, 110.
 Remarks of, on the doctrines and testimonies of Friends, as a trust to be transmitted to future generations, 83.
 On buying and selling, 371.
 Word in season." Extract entitled "A, 97.
 Words of comfort to aged christians, 349.
 "Work while it is called to-day." Narrative entitled, 386.
 Worldly compliance. Thomas Evans upon, 230.
 Worship. Advice of S. Crisp to Friends in regard to meetings for, 10.
 On the misapplication of wealth upon places for,
 183.
 Remarks of C. Healy on the attendance of meetings for, 379.
 Wright, Edward. Anecdote of the preaching of, 413.
 Wyandotte Cave and its life. Notice of, 74.
 Yarkand. Account of recent travels in, 396, 405, 409.
 Yearly Meeting, Indiana, 1871. Notice of the proceedings of, 86, 87.
 Extract from the minutes of, relating to freedmen, 141.
 Iowa, 1871. Notice of the proceedings of, 86.
 London. Thos. Drewry's protest against, 51.
 Comments on the above, 54.
 Statement of concerning church discipline, 175.
 On the course of recent seceders from, at Manchester, 191.
 Comments on the past and present condition
 of, 247.
 of women Friends, 1777. Comments on an Epistle of, 303.
 Notice of a committee of, in 1776, to pay a general visit to its members, 354.
 Notice of the proceedings of, 1872, 359.
 Ancient advices of, in regard to a distinguishing plainness of dress and other testimonies, 363.
 Ohio, 1871. Notice of the proceedings of, 63.
 Extracts from the minutes of, 126.
 Philadelphia. Advice of, concerning christian simplicity and plainness, 325.
 The concern of valuable members of, at different times, 277.
 1872. Notice of the proceedings of, 286, 311.
 Observations on the committees of, in 1832
 and 1872, 343.
 N. Carolina. Concern of members of, relating to plainness of dress, 279.
 Yellowstone river. Description of the falls and cañon of the, 366, 373, 380, 388, 397, 401.
 Youth. Warned from pride, 133.
 Encouragement offered to the, 138.
 Advice of S. Fothergill to, on considering the wishes of a pious parent, 294.

